No better year than 2011 to Subscribe to HTC

A Season of Delightful and Diverting Theatre, chosen to ensure that you enjoy a great night out at your local Theatre.

The Season begins with the Romantic Comedy, Enchanted April, murder follows in the tradition of the British psychological thriller with Richard Harris' The Business of Murder. If there was a vote, The History Boys would win hands down for the most intelligent, exhilarating, humour rich evening of theatre. And following that, another winner, The 39 Steps, a wonderful farce adapted from the original thriller of the 1930s. To end our exhilarating season we are delighted to present that classic piece, loved by all, a truly spellbinding night set in a Welsh village, a play full of humour and pathos, Under Milkwood.

Great Plays, Great Directors, at your local Theatre - don't miss Season 2011 at HTC. You can download the Playbill from our website or call 94574117 leave your name & address, we'll post a copy to you, just say if you want extras for your friends.

An exciting interpretation that moves between the original book and the much-loved 1939 film.

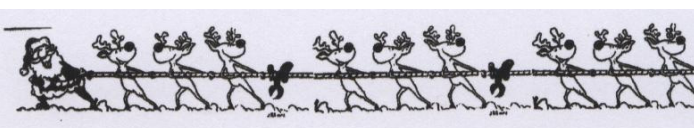

We travel down the Yellow-Brick Road with all the sense of a warm nostalgia remembered from the musical, yet this play version enables audiences to enjoy much more than simply a trip down memory lane.

A great way to get into the holiday spirit!
