FEB 17 TO MAR 4

Australia Day

by Jonathan Biggins
directed by Joan Moriarty

Australia Day celebrations are an important event in the small country town of Coriole. The organising committee of six members ponder, argue and fight over what will be on the program. Then the big day finally arrives, and with it, hilarity and disaster in equal measure; the portaloos overflow, the sausages are found to be past their use-by date and the heavens open.

Come along and enjoy these wacky characters and the mayhem they create. *

APR 28 TO MAY 13

Pride and Prejudice

by Simon Reade
based on the novel
by Jane Austen
directed by Tim Scott

Handsome Mr Darcy meets engaging Elizabeth Bennet and is as much drawn by her charms as he is put off by her family's lower social standing. Jane Austen's much-loved classic love story is brought vividly to life in this new stage adaptation, where dances abound, marriages are sought and made, and pride is finally overcome. Pride and Prejudice, the play, is replete with all the familiar, comical characters of the novel. It boasts period costumes, music and witty dialogue, where the deserving are rewarded, the self-serving are put in their place and love is triumphant..*

JUL 7 TO JUL 22

ALL MY SONS

by Arthur Miller
directed by Chris McLean

All My Sons explores the repercussions on a close-knit household after personal gain is put ahead of social duty. Some years back Joe Keller chose the prosperity of his family over the well-being of others. Now we join the family on the day of reckoning. This is Arthur Miller at his finest. Winner of the Drama Critics Award for Best New Play in 1947, All My Sons established the playwright as a leading voice in 20th century theatre. *

SEP 8 TO SEP 23

THE CLUB

by David Williamson
directed by Gavin Williams

The Club is set in the 70's when amateur-based footy was turning professional, coaches were no longer ex-players from the teams they played in and businessmen took over the running of the clubs. Written in 1977, The Club presciently depicts the big issues still facing football teams today: money rather than team spirit governing club management, coaches summarily sacked, administrators controlling decisions, players bought for outrageous sums, and bitter disputes played out in the media.

The Club shows Williamson at his best; writing about Australian men engaged in macho competitive battles. The play is big, broad and full of humour... even if you know nothing about footy. *

NOV 17 TO DEC 2

Blood Brothers

by Willie Russell
directed by Bruce Akers

Set in Liverpool, Blood Brothers is the captivating and moving tale of the Johnstone twins who, separated at birth, grow up on opposite sides of the tracks, only to meet again with fateful consequences.

Written by Willie Russell of Educating Rita and Shirley Valentine fame, this play is both funny and sad as it explores the differences and conflicts of the boys' upbringing, their relationship with each other, and with their real and adopted mothers.

"...it carries one along with it in almost unreserved enjoyment." The Guardian. *
