🕒 FEB 14 TO MAR 1

Jeeves & Wooster in Perfect Nonsense

by The Goodale Brothers
directed by Morgan Thomas-Connor

When a country house weekend takes a turn for the worse, Bertie Wooster is unwittingly called on to play matchmaker, reconciling the affections of his host's drippy daughter Madeline Basset with his newt-fancying acquaintance Gussie Fink-Nottle. If Bertie, ably assisted by the ever-dependable Jeeves, can't pull off the wedding of the season, he'll be forced to abandon his cherished bachelor status and marry the ghastly girl himself!

Based on P.G. Wodehouse's The Code of the Woosters, this fast-paced, farcical comedy celebrates the iconic double act and promises a confidently charming piece of entertainment. *

🕒 APR 25 TO MAY 10

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time

adapted by Simon Stephens from the novel by Mark Haddon directed by Karen Wakeham

Christopher Boone is an extremely clever and intelligent young man, whose mild autism sometimes makes it difficult for him to understand what is unfolding around him. But when he finds his neighbour's dog Wellington murdered in mysterious circumstances, Christopher turns detective. His investigation takes him on a very surprising and challenging journey.

"A beautiful, eloquent, dazzlingly inventive show about the wonders of life." Winner of the 2013 Olivier Award for Best New Play *

🕒 JUL 4 TO JUL 19

Love, Love, Love

by Mike Bartlett
directed by George Werther

Sandra and Kenneth are born into the optimistic "baby-boomer" generation, ready to "change the world". We follow their lives from the heady 60's to the challenging 90's, with their adolescent children seeking new directions. We then meet them in the new millennium, as they and their now adult children have very different needs and conflicting world views. The baby-boomers discover life is not a bed of roses. Mike Bartlett has brilliantly and humorously painted the story of the highs and lows of the post-war generations, leaving us with clever insights, much food for thought, and many unanswered questions.

Love, Love, Love has "a galloping satirical wit that pulls you along, happy and appalled, through the decades." *

🕒 SEP 5 TO SEP 20

Other Desert Cities

by Jon Robin Baitz
directed by Gaetano Santo

Set in Palm Springs, California, the play follows well-to-do, aging Republicans Lyman and Polly Wyeth as their daughter, Brooke, a liberal-leaning writer, threatens to expose a disturbing family secret through a tell all memoir. This family's crisis mirrors the American nation's politics.

The play has been awarded for showcasing its creator's talents: five Tony Award nominations, a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize and winner of the Outer Critics Circle Award for Outstanding New Off-Broadway Play. *

🕒 NOV 14 TO NOV 29

The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee a musical

music & lyrics by William Finn book by Rachel Sheinkin conceived by Rebecca Feldman directed by Tim Scott

From the team that brought you our 2023 sell-out Ladies in Black, comes a quirky musical about an eclectic group of adolescents (played by grown-up actors) who compete to become Spelling Champion, meanwhile telling stories of their family and background through song. Nominated for six Tony Awards and winner of two, this funny and touching show charms audiences with its wit and humour, its fast pace and vibrant score. There's even an opportunity for audience participation for those interested! It promises a suitably festive end to our 2025 season.

This Bee is one unforgettable experience. *
