FEB 13 TO FEB 28

Love, Loss, and What I Wore

by Nora Ephron & Delia Ephron
from the book by Ilene Beckerman directed by Catherine Christensen

Love, Loss, and What I Wore is a heartfelt celebration of women's lives told through the clothes that made them who they are. From prom dresses to purses, this bittersweet play uses fashion as a thread to explore love, loss, heartbreak, and resilience. A cast of women share unforgettable stories that are deeply personal yet universally relatable.

Adapted with warmth, wit and humour by Nora and Delia Ephron (When Harry Met Sally, You've Got Mail) from Ilene Beckerman's book, the play debuted Off-Broadway in 2008 and is a multi-award-winning delight. *

APR 24 TO MAY 9

THE GIRL ON THE TRAIN

adapted by Rachel Wagstaff & Duncan Abel
from the novel by Paula Hawkins directed by Deborah Fabbro

Rachel Watson longs for a different life. Her only escape is the perfect couple she watches through the train window every day, happy and in love. Or so it appears. When Rachel learns that the woman she's been secretly watching has suddenly disappeared, she finds herself as a witness and even a suspect in a thrilling mystery in which she will face bigger revelations than she could ever have anticipated.

The Girl on the Train is a thoroughly gripping thriller. Don't miss this hurtling ride! *

JUL 3 TO JUL 18

BIRDSONG

adapted by Rachel Wagstaff
from the novel by Sebastian Faulks
directed by Michelle Swann

Utterly raw, emotional and powerful, Birdsong is a beautiful and haunting story about one man's journey through an all-consuming, illicit love affair and into the horror of the First World War. Set alternately between the Battle of the Somme and the French village of Amiens, the play ebbs and flows between the tender love story, the heart-warming camaraderie of the soldiers and the harsh realities of war: once seen, never forgotten.

This impactful and insightful stage adaptation of Sebastian Faulks' critically-acclaimed novel is a tribute to love, courage and the endurance of the human spirit. *

SEP 4 TO SEP 19

Crimes of the Heart

by Beth Henley
directed by James Antonas

-Laughter laced with heartache in the Deep South -

In Hazlehurst, Mississippi, the three eccentric Magrath sisters reunite under one roof: Babe has just shot her husband, Meg's fled Hollywood, and Lenny is celebrating her birthday with a cookie. What follows is a darkly funny and deeply human story of shared trauma, fierce love, and awkward healing.

Crimes of the Heart premiered in 1979 and quickly became an American theatre classic, winning the 1981 Pulitzer Prize for Drama. Blending Southern Gothic humour with aching vulnerability, this bittersweet comedy has delighted audiences for over four decades. *

NOV 13 TO NOV 28

CLUE: ON STAGE

adapted from the screenplay by Jonathan Lynn
additional materials by Hunter Foster,
Eric Price and Sandy Rustin
directed by Chris McLean

Clue: On Stage is an hilarious adaptation of the 1985 movie and classic 'Cluedo' board game. This madcap farce-meets-murder-mystery, set in a far-flung mansion, finds Miss Scarlet, Professor Plum, Mrs. White, Mr. Green, Mrs. Peacock, and Colonel Mustard as guests at a bizarre dinner party where murder and blackmail are on the menu. Suddenly their host turns up dead, and everyone's a suspect!

With startling twists and laughs-a-plenty, Clue: On Stage is the comedy whodunnit to keep you all on the edge of your seats until the very end.*
