HEIDELBERG THEATRE COMPANY

Celebrating 75 years

2027 Season of Plays

FEB 12 TO FEB 27

The Cemetery Club

by Ivan Menchell

directed by Gayle Poor

The Cemetery Club is a witty, heartwarming comedy about Ida, Lucille and Doris, three Jewish widows in Queens, New York. Each month, they gather for tea before visiting their husbands' graves, sharing friendship, memories and very different approaches to grief. Their routine is upended when Sam, an eligible widowed butcher, enters their lives. As new possibilities emerge and loyalties are tested, this beautiful play explores friendship, love, loss and the courage to embrace new challenges.

An hilarious comedy about friendship, love and new beginnings. *

APR 23 TO MAY 8

Constellations

by Nick Payne

directed by Morgan Thomas-Connor

One relationship. Infinite possibilities.

Marianne, a physicist, and Roland, a beekeeper, meet at a party. They hit it off and go for a drink. Or perhaps they don't.

Nick Payne's Constellations follows one couple and the challenges they face, in this universe, and the next. The play explores the themes of free will vs fate, love and friendship, the multiverse theory… and honey.

A multi-Olivier-Award winner, Constellations premiered at the Theatre Upstairs at the Royal Court Theatre, London in January 2012. *

AN EXCITING NEW FOYER!

After the curtain closes on Constellations, our theatre will be turning into a construction site for six months, from May until November, while we give our foyer a major makeover.

We're extending the façade on Turnham Avenue out to the footpath, providing an expanded space for patrons to enjoy before the show and at interval. We're also improving disability access to the auditorium, adding new toilets, and refreshing our signage, so there's plenty to look forward to.

Undergoing these works does come at a cost. Instead of our usual five plays and a Youth production, we'll be staging only three. Once the work is done, we will be very excited to welcome you back to the theatre for our final show of the year in November.

An artist's impression of the new foyer

And to all our loyal HTC Youth fans, don't despair! They'll be back in 2028 with a production of Cinderella.

NOV 26 TO DEC11

A Little Night Music

music and lyrics by Stephen Sondheim book by Hugh Wheeler

directed by Tim Scott, musical director John Clancy, choreographer Jenny Vincent-Green

The team that brought you two sell-out musicals now brings Stephen Sondheim's enchanting dance of love to the HTC stage. With a host of memorable songs and feisty characters, it is variously witty and heartbreaking, but ultimately affirming of life, love and hope of redemption.

A Little Night Music explores the tangled web of affairs and indiscretions centred on aging actress Desirée Armfeldt, and the men who love her. It is a show that sings elegance and flirtatiousness while playing with the twists that love brings.

Celebrate our newly renovated foyer with this charming show by a master of the craft. *
